

April 24, 2010 OAHA Meeting

John Rannenbergh began the meeting at 1:45 at Hennesey Arabians. They opened their lovely home to us and gave a presentation of their beautiful horses.

We had invited Eric Wolfe, who is running for Director of Region 12, to give a talk on his views of the future of the Region and its show. He discussed his plans and what he hopes to accomplish if he is elected. After listening to Eric, OAHA voted to back him as Director and Janet Searls as Vice Director.

We discussed the Spotlight program and it's in good condition.

We need a third alternate for Convention. Michelle Watson and Kathy Milavic volunteered.

Laureen Ford gave the Treasurer's Report about the amateur show. We had 133 horses, which is up. The show went very well. We will see how we can trim expenses for next year. We will have an audit done in the next 30 days by Bridget Middleton.

Eric said AHAF is considering not having the spring show next year. Maybe their members can help us and we can work together. We discussed having double qualifying shows, like for 15.

The meeting adjourned at 2:55.
